

Day 1 - 28th January: Becoming a Digital Professional

Time	Agenda Item
10:30	Refreshments and Registration
10:45	Welcome Dara de Burca, Children and Young People's Director The Vision of TCS for Practitioners
10:55	Plenary Session Sara Rowbotham, Rochdale Crisis Intervention Team and Labour Councillor, Rochdale The importance of impact for young people and engaging with technology
11:15	Session 1 Tech in practice: boundaries, safeguarding and disclosure in a digital world
	Session 2 Tech in practice: Digital Skills for young people
12:00	Young People's Session: What's out there: - Social Media - Platforms and Apps - Online Communities – Gaming
12:30	Session 3 Interoperability: Intel and Data - how this makes a difference in multi-agency working
	Session 4 Tech in Practice: Digital 101 Everything you need to know about how to be more digitally minded. Will cover - how to use your tech on the go - communication tools - document and media sharing - video creation
13:15	Lunch, Networking and Market Place An opportunity to replenish, network and engage with a variety of stands focused on current tech products including those related to Bethnal Green Ventures and the IS Genius Bar (for all your tech needs).
14:00	Session 5 Tech in practice: boundaries, safeguarding and disclosure in a digital world
	Session 6 Tech in Practice: Whistlestop tour of tech products being piloted and used in practice
14:45	Plenary Session by Panel Young people and interaction with the world around them: a look into changes in society, the digital revolution and the impact on young people's interaction
15:30	Refreshments and Market Place
16:00	Showcase Session Inspiring tech for young people, presented by parents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dom Raban, CEO Corporation Pop and Founder of Xploro, an app that empowers young patients with information. • Michelle Wignall, who organised a telepresence robot for her son, Jack Mc Linden, to 'walk out' on the Everton FC pitch.
16:30	Closing Plenary Matt Haworth, Reason Digital Future Digital Developments and what this means for practitioners
16:50	Closing Remarks Dara de Burca, Children and Young People's Director
17:00	Close and Drinks Reception

Day 2 - 29th January: Mental and Health and Wellbeing

Time	Agenda Item
09:30	Breakfast Session Naomi Mwasambili, CEO and Co-Founder of Chanua talks about their Neurochampions Programme Chloe Dennis-Green, Practitioner, Pause talks about VR With You
10:15	Refreshments and Registration
10:30	Welcome Nerys Anthony, CYP National Operations Director
10:35	Session 1 Nicola and Tahir from Pause will demonstrate a variety of techniques used in our drop-in services to get young people talking about their mental health and provide them with ways to cope when things are difficult.
11:05	Session 2 Thinking Together – Try out the AMBIT model's 'active planning' approach to supporting colleagues working with vulnerable young people with Richard Kirkup from Checkpoint Torbay
11:45	Session 3 Dr Wendy Sims-Schouten, an expert in childhood studies from the University of Portsmouth explores some of the challenges and opportunities for improving mental health when working with BAME young people and their families
12.25	Lunch
12:55	Session 4 An interactive workshop delivered by Rachel Tribe and Young Consultant Jamel from MAC-UK will explore how to address mental health through co-design with vulnerable young people in the community
14:05	Session 5 Over the next five years, NHS mental health services for young people are expected to double in capacity. Is this hype? Or is it possible? Richard Crellin from the Policy & Research Team wonders what the future might look like!
14:20	Break
14:30	Session 6 Tackling trauma – Maaike Beech from our RISE service for trafficked boys and young men leads this session on working with young people who have experienced trauma and what you need to know about vicarious trauma.
15:10	Reflection and closing remarks Nerys Anthony, CYP National Operations Director helps us reflect on the day and closes the conference
15:30	Close