

Working Digitally with Historical Maps Programme

9.30-10.00	Registration & coffee
10.00-10.15	Welcome & Introduction
10.15-10.40	Petr Pridal	Klokan Technologies GmbH	Old Maps Online
10.40-10.50	comfort break
10.50-12.10	Session 1: Mapping history with technology
10.50-11.10	Chris Fleet	National Library of Scotland	New digital map developments at the National Library of Scotland
11.10-11.30	Alice Heywood	National Library of Scotland Education / Outreach	Thinking Global, Mapping local - using historical maps in mobile apps
11.30-11.50	Chris Speed	Edinburgh College of Art	Walking Through Time
11.50-12.10	Peter Munro	Borders Family History Society	Maps and Family History
12.10-12.15	Presentation of 2012 Bartholomew Globe by Royal Scottish Geographical Society
12.15-1.10	Lunch
1.10-2.50	Session 2: Visualizing places, spaces and in-between
1.10-1.30	Richard Rodger	University of Edinburgh	When History meets Geography: New Mapping Tools
1.30-1.50	Bruce Gittings & Michal Michalski	Edinburgh University	The Story of Perth: Linking Archaeology, History and Maps
1.50-2.10	David Simpson		Old Data on Modern Maps
2.10-2.30	Neil Ramsay	ScotWays	Historic Paths on Historic Maps
2.30-2.50	Andrew Janes & Humphrey Southall	The National Archives & University of Portsmouth	Bomb Sight
2.50-3.20	Tea break
3.20-4.40	Session 3: Utilising Gazetteers and place-names
3.20-3.40	Ashley Beamer	RCAHMS	Connecting people to ScotlandsPlaces
3.40-4.00	Jake King	Ainmean Aite na h-Alba	Using Historical Maps as a Tool for Place-name Research
4.00-4.20	Kirsty Stewart & Neil Mayo	University of Edinburgh Library & EDINA	The Carmichael Watson Project: Putting Folklore In Its Place
4.20-4.40	Paul Eil	Queen's University, Belfast	The Digital Exposure of English Place-names (DEEP) project
4.40-5.00	Wrap up discussion		