Heliopolis 21 Architects

New Lobby for the Library of the Normale University in Pisa, 2015.

Palazzo della Gherardesca, Piazza dei Cavalieri.

Competition project, First Prize.

Category: Interior architecture and conservation.

Under construction.

Significance

-The Normale School, founded by Napoleon, is the n. 1 university in the Italian ranking;

-The building is a Medieval Palace belonging to the Della Gherardesca Family, A-listed and considered, today, one of the major monuments in the city.

-The building is also well known because The Count Ugolino was imprisoned with his family as Dante told in his “Inferno”. The story is so influential that has been object of several artworks especially during the XIX century.

See here Ugolino in his palace (object of the project), painted by William Blake in 1826.
